

A map of Sweden showing administrative regions and cooperation areas. The map is divided into two main color-coded regions: a green region in the north and a yellow region in the center. The green region is labeled 'Nordens Gröna Bälte' and includes the counties of Trøndelag, Jämtlands län, and Västernorrlands län. The yellow region is labeled 'Inre Skandinavien' and includes the counties of Hedmark, Dalarnas län, Värmlands län, and Västra Götalands län. The southernmost part of the map, including the city of Stockholm and the region of Östfold, is labeled 'Gränsløst Samarbete'. The map also shows the surrounding sea and islands.
