

A map of Northern and Central Sweden, showing administrative regions and cooperation areas. The map is divided into several colored regions: a dark orange area in the north, a light orange area in the center, and a darker orange area in the south. The regions are labeled with their names in Swedish. The dark orange area is labeled 'Nordens Gröna Bälte'. The light orange area is labeled 'Inre Skandinavien'. The darker orange area is labeled 'Gränslost Samarbete'. The regions are further divided into counties, labeled with their names in Swedish: Trøndelag, Jämtlands län, Västernorrlands län, Hedmark, Dalarnas län, Akershus, Värmlands län, Østfold, and Västra Götalands län. The map also shows the coastline of Sweden and the surrounding waters.
